INTROIT— Exsurge. Psalm 44. Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? Awake, and cast us not away forever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? Our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise, and save us, O Lord, our helper and our deliverer. Ps. Ibid. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us. Glory be to the Father, and to Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. Arise, O Lord, . . .

COLLECTS

SEXAGESIMA — O Lord God, who seest that we put not our trust in anything that we do; Mercifully grant that by thy power we may be defended against all adversity; through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

St. Benedict Biscop, Abt. — O God, by whose gift the blessed Abbot Benedict left all things that he might be made perfect: grant unto all those who have entered upon the path of evangelical perfection, that they may neither look back nor linger in the way; but hastening to thee without stumbling, may lay hold upon eternal life, and . . .

OF SAINT MARY — Grant, we beseech thee, O Lord our God; that we, whom, thou hast made partakers of heavenly gladness, may by thee be defended from all earthly perils. Through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

The Congregation may be seated.

EPISTLE — II Corinthians XI, 19: BRETHREN: Ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise. For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

MINISTER: (may say) Here endeth the Epistle.

Response: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL — St. Luke VIII, 4: At that time: When much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable: A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be? And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

ST. OSMUND

Solesmes Melody
Harm. Healey Willan, 1880-1968

1. Lord, en-throned in heav-enly splen-dor, first be-got ten from the dead,
2. Here our hum-blest hom-age pay we; here in lov-ing rev-erence bow;
3. Though the low-liest form doth veil thee as of old in Beth-le-hem, thou a-lone, our strong de-fend-er, lift-est up thy peo-ple's head.

here for faith's dis-cern-ment pray we, lest we fail to know thee now.
here as there thine an-gels hail thee, branch and flower of Jes-se's stem.

Al-le-lu-ia, Je-sus, true and liv-ing Bread!
Al-le-lu-ia, thou art here, we ask not how.
Al-le-lu-ia, we in wor-ship join with them.

4. Paschal Lamb, thine offering, finished once for all when thou wast slain,
in its fullness undiminished
shall for evermore remain,
Alleluia,
cleansing souls from every stain.
5. Life-imparting heavenly manna,
stricken rock with streaming side,
heaven and earth with loud hosanna
worship thee, the Lamb who died,
Alleluia,
risen, ascended, glorified!
